

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT REGARDING SST CARDS AND SST TRAINING FROM REDCODE, INC.....PLEASE READ TO SEE IF THIS APPLIES TO YOU.

Announcement (Sep 14): ALERT: REDCODE, INC. INDICTMENT: On September 8, 2026, the Brooklyn District Attorney's Office announced the indictment of REDCODE, INC. for fraudulent construction safety training. | In response, DOB is immediately invalidating all Site Safety Training (SST) certificates issued by Redcode. Affected workers will have a 90-day grace period, through December 7, 2026, to complete all required training through a DOB registered course provider. | During the grace period, affected SST cards will remain active when scanned on a job site. | Additionally, the following applies: •SST cards issued by other course providers using Redcode certificates may remain active after the grace period if the worker completes the required training during the 90-day grace period. If the worker does not update all required training, the card will be revoked. •Workers with Redcode SST cards must obtain a new SST card from a DOB registered course provider by the end of the grace period. •Workers with Redcode certificates used to meet DOB worker certifications and licensing requirements must complete the required training by the end of the grace period. •OSHA cards issued by SM Lutfur Rahman, owner of Redcode, will be invalidated and will not be accepted to meet SST requirements. Workers must complete the OSHA training through a current OSHA Training Provider. (Read More)
